

ALL SORTS.

Evan Williams and family have returned from San Francisco.

Supt. Byrnes of the New York police was retired from office yesterday.

Ed. Yerington's wife presented him with a daughter in Virginia City last Thursday.

Half an inch of snow as we go to press and more in sight—Merry Christmas.

Mr. Coffin thinks Heney must be some where down in Arizona looking for Bill Travers.

The Times Review reports a great exodus of miners from Tuscarora last week, mostly for Idaho.

There is considerable excitement up the valley over rich mining discoveries on the Carson river.

People owing this office for job work will please drop in and discuss the chances of liquidating.

Wheat is climbing higher. The cause is the reported failure of crops in Nebraska and Minnesota.

The Supreme Court yesterday affirmed the constitutionality of the Geary Chinese Exclusion Act.

A new awning is being built by Mrs. Geo. Davis to the hardware and grocery store managed by Geo. Gilson.

Wells Fargo & Co., has taken down all its letter boxes in San Francisco, no more Wells Fargo envelopes being sold.

Strawberries are beginning to ripen in this city. The first box to reach the APPEAL office was from Mr. Alex Ardery.

C. F. McGlashan of Truckee has been elected Grand Vice-Chancellor of the California Knights of Pythias and Truckee is endeavoring to get the Grand Lodge to meet at that place next year.

Twelve Germans arrived from New York yesterday and started up the Carson valley to locate. They say hundreds more would come if they only knew the kind of a soil and climate we have here.

The Central Pacific R. R. Co., advertises in the Nevada "Herald" of the 2nd inst., that "Lands covered by actual mining claims, which are operated as mines, will be relinquished without consideration."

Since Corbett and Fitzsimmons have had a falling out, there is no prospect of their fight ever coming off. But Corbett is now said to be on good terms with Jackson once more, and willing to fight him anywhere.

A twenty-two ton Armstrong rifle throws a solid shot twelve miles, much farther than its report can be heard. At its highest point, for this extreme range, the shot would be over three miles above the earth's surface.

The Southern Pacific Company has paid to Mrs. J. J. Bogard the sum of $5,000, says the Woodland Mail, being the amount of the reward offered for the train robber at Marysville lately, when Sheriff Bogard was killed.

Irrigation, once considered the drawback, is slowly becoming the blessing to Nevada. Even now the people of the East are beginning to realize what it means. Certainty of water when needed, certainty of bounteous crops.

It is rightly said that no dead American has a right to lie under a gravestone worth a hundred and fifty thousand dollars, while a live American woman is starving in a garret. The wealth of this world belongs to quick not to the dead.

Our Schools Trustees who have so openly violated the contract law, and illegally expended over $2,000 of the people's money, don't seem to fear the Grand Jury much. They are evidently stronger than the Grand Jury. The Grand Jury are at least leary of grappling with them.

The Weiland Saloon.

Whitney has assumed control of the Weiland saloon, which he proposes to run strictly up to the times. He will dispense the best liquors and cigars and fine old Government whiskey which slides down your throat like oil, tickling your palate meanwhile. Call and see "Handsome Whit." f11

When Baby was sick,
We gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child,
She cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss,
She clung to Castoria.
When she had Children,
She gave them Castoria.

The Doll's Carriage.

There is no sight so pleasant as to see a little child trundling her wicker doll's carriage about, filled with a family of big and little dolls. With what solicitude she shelters their battered and painted faces from the sun and wind, and how she tucks them up with shawls and coverlids to keep their wooden arms and stuffed sawdust legs from the chill of evening. She is training her young mind to look after the real children she will care for in after years. How her father sits on the porch in the afternoon and watches with pardonable pride the enjoyment the little thing gets out of her motley family of dirty, broken and mutilated mechanical children.

But a baby carriage becomes a different thing in the night. The husband gets up about 2:30 to ascertain if a burglar is fooling with the parlor window, and just outside the bedroom door he falls over the darling little baby carriage. He plunges in the dark, bangs his head against the center table that he thought was at least ten feet further on, butts his toes against the edge of a chair, skins his shins, barks his nose, and then struggling to his feet grapples with the ——— infernal doll carriage, hurles it across the room, breaks the dolls' necks and noses again and lets out a streak of blasphemy that shocks his trusting wife, the woman who insists to all her relatives that her husband never contracted the swearing habit.

Yes a doll's carriage is a poetic and sentimental thing and pleases the children, but after it has taken a fall out of you in the night, you ache to see it become an integral part of the wood pile.

The Storm.

The big wind storm of Sunday did more or less damage. It was almost a hurricane in the afternoon and downed a few trees in this city. It also lashed the branches of fruit trees together so that a good deal of young fruit was knocked off. This however did not do much harm, as the trees were too heavily loaded, and the fruit that survived the storm will be all the better.

The wind was followed by snow and rain yesterday morning with temperature below 40 and a damp, disagreeable chill in the air. It rained and drizzled and snowed most of the day, giving the ranches the moisture they wanted.

A Counterfeit Stamp.

A new counterfeit two-cent stamp is out which defies detection except when examined with a glass by experts. The color is a shade darker in the counterfeit, but it is not noticeable except when a bad and good stamp are placed side by side.

There is one certain test, however, which enables anybody to detect the counterfeit. Every counterfeit sticks to the letter when the genuine ones don't.

Big Mining Suit.

The papers in a big suit to be brought by the Standard Consolidated Mining Company against the Bodie Consolidated Mining Company, both of the Bodie mining district, for the recovery of $300,000 alleged to have been the value of ore extracted by the Bodie Consolidated from Standard Consolidated ground, have been filed in San Francisco. On the strength of the suit Bodie has fallen from $1.10 to 75 cents.

On Heney's Trail.

The San Francisco papers announce that Heney is in Colorado, just about a mile ahead of the U. S. officials. They have surrounded houses he is supposed to be in occasionally, but they never quite reached him. His capture is expected within a few days.

Of Interest to Contractors.

Attention is called to the advertisements of the plans and specifications of the addition to the Orphan's Home, under the head of "Bids Wanted."

Wm. Keegan, an old resident of the Comstock died there Sunday. Death resulted from a cancer in the face. The disease was contracted in a peculiar way. About two years ago there was a patient in the hospital who had a cancer in his face. One day Keegan cut himself while shaving and wiped the blood away with a towel used by the patient with the cancer. As a result in a short time a cancer formed on Keegan's face.

The question of a pork-packing establishment for Carson is still being talked of, but nothing is done so far. Meanwhile we raise pork for the market and sell it at 5 cents dressed, buying it back at 18 and 20 cents, after it has been shipped below to be cured. What utter commercial lunacies the people of Nevada are.

Secretary Gresham has had a relapse and is in a serious condition.

Riders in Tights.

It is easy enough to see that the female limb is to gradually succeed in exhibiting itself abundantly on the Coast by the means of the bicycling habit. The opportunity is one that was not to be missed by the gay and the plump, and the swift disappearance of drapery, and the revelation of curves that is now going on among the gentle straddlers of wheels are enough to give a start even to an experienced and cool observer.

The bloomer still provides a large and roomy accommodation for that portion of the feminine form which custom still decrees must be covered. But the bloomer will not last long. It will lose cloth as the weeks pass until it changes to small and elastic breeches, affectionate in their fit and occasionally treacherous in their seams. The result is inevitable. Youthful and beautiful womanhood is going to emancipate itself by means of the bicycle. It has charms to exhibit and is bound to exhibit them. Judging from the stealthy and steady protrusion of hitherto hidden graces on the public streets, the Argus man must believe that woman bicyclists will be wearing tights within a year. They want to do it—San Francisco Argus.

Funeral of Mrs. Chedie.

The funeral of Mrs. Chedie took place on Sunday from her late residence. The house was crowded with friends of the deceased, who had lived over a quarter of a century in Carson.

The coffin was covered with flowers, and Rev. Geo. R. Davis read the Episcopal burial ritual. The funeral music was rendered with great impressiveness by Mrs. Bender, James Torreyson and wife, Mrs. Geo. Cagwin and John Meder.

The funeral procession was very long, one of the longest in fact that has been seen in Carson for a long time.

To Consider the Hartley Case.

Gov. Jones has called a special meeting of the Board of Pardons to consider the Hartley case. It will meet on Monday next. Petitions have been received from different parts of the State asking that the Board exercise its clemency in the case.

Carson Beaten.

The Carson boys received a terrible drubbing on Sunday from the Virginians. The game stood 34 to 3. The Carson boys say that the windy weather is responsible for their defeat.

Elko Independent: With the income tax knocked out silver demonetized and the hole in the Treasury growing bigger every day, Uncle Sam is having a high old time running America in partnership with England. When the old gentleman sees where he is at, he will dissolve partnership p. d. q.

Grover Cleveland is already laying the wires for a third term. Washington declined to ever entertain the thought of a third term. But Washington's single purpose in life was the welfare of his country, while Cleveland is merely looking out for the welfare of Great Britain.

Dance at Cook's Grove.

On Friday June 7th, there will be a beautiful moon, and it will be taken advantage of by Andy Todd and Jerry Barrett to give a moonlight party and dance, at Cook's grove. The best of music and refreshments will also be there.

Notice to Dairymen.

I can ship kegs and kits to Reno, Carson City, Washoe and other points on the C. P. and V. & T. R. R., at prices that will surprise you. Write for prices and trial order to, John C. Arnold, Cooper, Truckee Cal.

Ice Cream Soda.

Dauchy's Ice Cream Soda Fountain opened for business yesterday, and the heat drove half the population of Carson there to refresh themselves. The cream and the soda are as good as you could expect in Paris.
